Dallaire's Holiday Party Inspired and quotes from Jodi Fletcher and Newsletter Editor

All the hustle and bustle of the holidays can be a bit daunting at times and it sometimes seems as though going to yet another party in this busy season is just another social obligation. If that was the case with some of you who didn't attend, then we are sorry that you missed the annual Dallaire Christmas party. More accurately, we who attended are sorry, because you were truly missed.

"15 Weeks Pond Lane was aglow with lights, decorations and the spirit of Christmas. Friends both old and new gathered to celebrate the season and each other. There was good food, good music, and of course...good drink with which to celebrate, which is what we did. The Dallaire mansion, if you have never seen it all dressed in its Christmas finery, is a sight to behold. Every room has new wonders to behold, each with a treasure of Christmas. There are, not just one, but two live Christmas trees with twinkling lights and stunning decorations. Let me tell you, in this place, every hall is decked." quote from Jodi Fletcher.

There were old friends and new and some we've never met. These include neighbors, teachers, random friends Michael draws around him, sponsors and potential sponsors for our BLW event, and of course, members of the Cape Cod British Car Club. Everyone seemed to appreciate the house and its impeccable decorations. Mike and Pam, who were as usual, the most gracious host for this gathering of family and friends from all segments of their very full lives. All this provided the perfect setting for Christmas merriment...! The event was enjoyed by all who ventured out, and if you missed it, I would recommend that you place the date on your calendar for next year because you missed a wonderful time.

Editor's Message - by Bill Scott

I like new beginnings, fresh starts, newly cleaned slates - the new club season starting for 2018 offers a wealth of new opportunities ahead. I have just put together the schedule of events for the coming year and sent it off to the British Marque for this Jan/Feb issue. It list all of our current, known, activities for the year ahead. We have some old reliable events that return each year and seem to be well attended and enjoyed by the membership. On our club web page listing of events, we add the dates of other activities happening in the surrounding states that many club members like to attend, sometime together as a group. All chances to drive our cars and enjoy the company of others having a similar interest in LBCs.

In order to keep things interesting, we encourage other members to suggest and put together new and different activities. These could be big overnight trips to places of interest or could be a lunch or dinner outing to just have a good excuse to drive the cars and get together having fun. Maybe suggesting and arranging for a guest personality to come and talk to us at a meeting, or a place to visit like we did at Factory Five a few years ago. This past year we gathered at Lemon Tree Village, Diesel & Lulu's and Titcomb's Bookshop. The thing is, we need members to step up and put these ideas into actual events. The Officers and BoG will guide and help you in your planning and we will certainly promote the new event activities, but they must come from the broader membership. This is your club, so get involved and together we can make this the best club ever and 2018 as an action packed year to remember.
